Privacy Policy

CROSSTALK LAB, LLC · Last updated 11 November 2026

CROSSTALK LAB is sensitive to the privacy issues raised by use of the Internet, and we are committed to protecting your privacy in a manner that will allow you to use our resources with complete confidence and comfort.

Only when voluntarily offered, CROSSTALK LAB collects information that can identify you and uses this information in accordance with its privacy policy. When you sign up for our services CROSSTALK LAB requests personal information, including your name, e-mail address, and other information necessary to provide you with personalized service.

We do not disclose any personal information unless you authorize us to do so, the law requires it, or to protect the rights or property of CROSSTALK LAB. Manuscripts, data, ideas and other materials you send us for a service are kept confidential and used only to deliver that service (see our Terms and Conditions and NDA).

We operate under a strict set of privacy principles. CROSSTALK LAB takes care to respect the privacy of its online visitors (guests and/or members). Information that can identify any online visitor is collected only when voluntarily offered by the visitor. At CROSSTALK LAB we continuously strive to improve your experience. To do so, we internally use personally identifiable information to personalize the customer experience and to improve our content and product offering, and site design and layout.

We do not sell or rent any personally identifiable information about you to any third party. We may share non-personal, aggregate information regarding customer demographics, traffic patterns, sales, and site usage with our partners or advertisers. We will never willfully disclose personally identifiable information about our customers to any third party without prior consent.

We do not share personal information provided by site visitors with anyone outside CROSSTALK LAB, except to the extent necessary to allow you to participate in site activities. In particular, we do not rent or sell mailing lists of site visitors to any third party. We will never post your e-mail address or other identifying information you have provided on our site without your consent. We collect non-personal information from online visitors in order to constantly improve our web site.

Information that can identify a visitor (e.g. name or address) is not collected in this process, nor does CROSSTALK LAB require disclosure of such information. Information that can identify a visitor is collected only when the visitor provides it voluntarily.

You are solely responsible for maintaining the secrecy of your passwords and/or account information. Please be careful and responsible whenever you are online.

Any changes in this privacy policy will be promptly disclosed in these pages. Return to check from time to time. For full details of how we process personal data, see our Data Protection &

Privacy Policy and Cookie Policy.
